

Bachelor of Science in Engineering Management[†]

Department of Systems and Industrial Engineering

Program Educational Objectives

- Objective 1: Technical Proficiency: Graduates continue to augment their engineering knowledge through life-long learning as it relates to the technical focus of their employment.
- Objective 2: Professional Growth: Graduates advance into management positions utilizing skills and knowledge from the Program in conjunction with knowledge gained in the workplace.
- Objective 3: Management Skills: Graduates continue to develop knowledge and skills in human relations, financial management, and project management.